DEPARTURE OF KINAU

The departure of the steamer Kinau at noon today was attended by more than usual excitement. A large crowd had congregated on the wharf and leis were the order of the day. Some time before the steamer left, the Hilo company of the National Guard arrived to board the steamer. It was preceded by the band, which, on its arrival, stationed itself on the wharf and played various airs until the steamer swung out from the dock.

Among the passengers who departed in the Kinau were Hon. Sam Parker and party, which included Captain John Ross, James K. Parker, Geo. C. Beckley Jr. and others.

Quite a number of horse-lovers went to attend the Hilo Fourth of July races. Several horses were also taken over to Hilo. They were Ballentine's Mollie Connors and Bruner O'Rourke's Dixie Land and Carter Harrison, and W. Lucas' Racine Murphy.

JUDGMENT FOR AUSTIN

FORECLOSURE DECREED IN SMITH VS. SCHMIDT

PETITIONS BEFORE JUDGE ROBINSON TOMORROW—MR. KAWI GRANTED A DIVORCE. DEPOSITIONS.

Judgment for plaintiff was given by Judge Robinson in William Lono Austin vs. R. W. Holt, bill to declare a trust and to enforce a charge on real estate, just before noon today. Peterson and Stewart for plaintiff, Robertson and McClanahan for defendants.

In the matter of the estate of Catherine E. Batchelor, late of Honolulu, deceased intestate, hearing on master's report before Judge De Bolt this morning, the Court orders first and final account of administratrix Emma S. Douglas approved and confirms report of F. D. Kellett, Jr., master, in all respects except so far as to the question of the discharge of the administratrix, and the administratrix is discharged upon filing receipts of the heirs for the property.

In W. O. Smith et al., trustees, vs. H. W. Schmidt, motion for decree of foreclosure, Judge De Bolt grants the prayer. Property was mortgaged for $35,000. Interest amounts to $3722.24.

In Kawi (k) vs. Hall (w), libel for divorce, Judge De Bolt grants divorce on ground of desertion.

Before Judge Robinson tomorrow morning Attorneys Smith & Lewis and L. J. Warren, representing Wm. O. Smith, trustee for Anton Lidgate, will present for hearing petition for leave to join receiver in suit for foreclosure of mortgage in Carolina Silva vs. Manuel G. Silva, showing that on July 19, 1901, Manuel Silva gave to petitioner as trustee, his promissory note for $6000, executing as security indenture of mortgage on lots corner of Wilder avenue and Makiki street; and Kua-kini street, between Liliha and Nuuanu; that mortgagor has made default wherefore petitioner desires judgment and execution.

In another petition by W. O. Smith and Mary S. Parker, trustees under the will of W. L. Lunaflo, for leave to join receiver in suit for foreclosure of mortgage, it is represented that Manuel Silva on September 11, 1900, gave his note for $1000, mortgaging as security a lot at Kapaeha; that Silva broke conditions, wherefore foreclosure is desired.

The Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd., was appointed receiver for Manuel Silva on February 6, 1903. The trust company has all Silva's property in its possession, under this order of the court. It is therefore asked that the trust company may be joined as party defendant in foreclosure proceedings.

Notices of claim have been filed against F. H. Redward and F. M. Swanzey by Emmeluth & Co. for $279.78; J. Rosenstein, for $70; and B. S. Gregory, for $562.74; materialman's liens. During last October and November Redward sold and delivered to Clarence F. H. Redward, contractor, certain goods used in the construction of a house on Manoa road on land conveyed to Clarence F. M. Swanzey by deed of E. C. Judd et al and C. H. Judd and wife.

Depositions in the matter of the estate of James J. Stewart, sealed, addressed and transmitted by J. A. Ivers, commissioner, taken in McConnellsville, Ohio, were filed this morning.

The BUSINESS MAN'S HANDY INDEX, published in the Saturday Bulletin and the Weekly Edition, gives a concise and complete resume of all legal notices, calls for tenders, judgments, building permits and real estate transactions. Evening Bulletin, 75 cents per month. Weekly Bulletin, $1 per year.

OUR RED SISTER'S EDUCATION.

Major Pratt, the United States army officer who is in charge of the Carlisle Indian school, admits that many of his graduates who return to tribal life fall into Indian ways again. Therefore he is doing all he can to prevent the educated Indians from going back to the reservation.

He tells of an incident he saw at a Western Indian agency. A squaw entered a trader's store, wrapped in a blanket, pointed at a straw hat, and asked: "How much?"

"Fifty cents," said the merchant.

"How much?" she asked again, pointing to another article. The prize was quoted, and was followed by another query of "How much?"

Then she suddenly gazed blandly at the merchant and asked, mildly: "Do you not regard such prices as extortionate for articles of such paltry and unmistakably inferior quality?"

"Do you not really believe that a reduction in your charges would materially enhance your pecuniary profits, as well as be ethically proper?" I beg you to consider my suggestion."

She was a graduate of the Carlisle Indian school.
